COMPREHENSION: (10 marks)

1. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

'Do you have a Goal? One of my friends - Tomi - once asked me a question when I was in JSS Two. The question was, 'Do you have a goal? My reply was that I had one and it was to excel in my promotion examination. "That is good but it is a short term one", he replied. "What exactly do you want to become?" he asked further. 'I am too young that, I can become anything like a doctor, an engineer, a banker, a lawyer, just anything. "I replied and I added, "When I get to SS Three, I will think about it.

Tomi then took time to enlighten me: Listen Jumai, don't deceive yourself, you must have a particular goal. Do you want to become a member of the NFA? You know NFA? No Future Ambition. You have to think of what you want to become right now so that you can study towards it. You just don't wake up one day to become a doctor, a lawyer. What you want to become requires careful planning. For instance, your goal will determine the type of subjects

QUESTIONS

- b) ship

- c) think

- d) that

you are going to combine. You will not just combine any subject with any other one. You need to combine the relevant subjects that will lead to your course of study. If for an example you want to be an engineer, apart from concentrating on English Language and Mathematics, you need to devote much attention to Basic Science and Technology, These subjects will help you when you get to the Senior Secondary School where you will study Physics, Chemistry and Technical Drawing among other subjects.

"I see, but how did you obtain this vital information? Jumai asked. "My father happens to be a Guidance Counsellor and he has explained everything about the choice of a career to me. Don't you have a Guidance Counsellor in your school? If you do, go directly to him or her and he or she will counsel you?" So, what is your own goal? I asked. I want to be a dentist. I will soon be helping you and other Nigeria people to take adequate care of their teeth. I will read Dentistry at the university? Tomi replied. Thank you, Tomi, you have really enlightened me today. I will go straight to our school's Guidance Counsellor, 'I concluded.

1. What does it mean to have a goal as it is used in the passage?
